News Brevities STOCK MOVEMENT

First Gains Are Canceled, but Upward Swing Takes Place Later in Day.

NOTE - Quotations reflect closing sales Friday, April 17.

New York, April 17.—Although the market was a higher level most of the morning, the movement was uncertain and fregular, Baiding operations were again in evidence with Lehich Valler the particular object of attack. A sharp depression in that stock checked the early improvement, but although initial gains were canceled, the market resumed its upward awing and by noon prices had mounted again to the by noon prices had mounted again to the early level.

Miscourt Pacific was especially susceptible to attack. It dropped 4% points to 15%, the lowest in more than a decade.

Bonds were steady.

A drop in Miscourt Pacific to 13 was accompanied by reports of differences attending the adjustment of the company's finances. Londing stocks were weaker. Terms company ross 4% points.

New Haven was strong on the definite amountcinent that provision had been made for the company's financial needs.

The market closed weak. Demoralization of Lehigh Valley, which dropped seven points in all to 12t epused a rapid fall in other securities. Can fell 3 points and Reading and Amalgamated one.

BE SPEAKER AT DINNER

No arrangements have yet been made for the April dinner of the Chamber of Commerce. Officials are somewhat discouraged over the slim attendance at the recent dinners and believe that the business men of the city should give greater support to the Chamber of Commerce along this line. Arrangements are being made to livite governor G. W. P. Hunt, of Arizons, to be the chief speaker in the event a dinner is decided upon for this month.
